16.13.3.10 EXAM ELIGIBILITY DETERMINED: Upon receipt of the completed licensure application form, all other required documentation, and application fee, the board or its designee will review the application materials, determine the applicant's eligibility to sit for the national licensing examination and notify the applicant in writing of eligibility or ineligibility.

A. Upon finding that the applicant is eligible to take the examination, the board shall notify the eligible candidate, in writing, that his or her application has been approved, and provide the candidate with NAB's website address to apply on-line to take the NAB exam.

B. The service shall notify the board electronically that the candidate has applied to take the examination and the board shall electronically indicate to the service the candidate's eligibility to take the exam.

C. Candidates are encouraged to wait until they receive official written notice from the board that their licensure application has been approved before they apply on-line to take the NAB exam. If the candidate pre-pays the NAB fee(s) and subsequently does not meet the board's licensure requirements and the board does not approve the candidate to take the exam, the fee(s) pre-paid to NAB are non-refundable.

D. An applicant who holds a Health Services Executive certification will have already met the requirements established by NAB and does not need to take the exam.
